To,
Mrs. Pooja Shah

Respected Madam,

Amaze is an annual fest organized by The Indian Institute of Planning and Management, Ahmedabad, since its inception. This event seeks to showcase the talent of students. It is an event which gives a wonderful opportunity to students from all across the globe to come and show their talent by participating in various events, which are filled with fun, frolic, and most importantly, learning.

It is our pleasure to invite you as an honorable judge in AMAZE-07, the theme of which is QUALIA COLORS SPEAK... For the event named Move It. The event will be held at Rajpath Club, on 1st December 2007 at 06:00pm We expect your valuable contribution by encouraging the participants and thereby being a significant part of the event. We will always be available for any coordination required at your end.

It would be an honor and privilege for us to invite you in our event as your presence will propel us a step towards making the event a grand success.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Yours sincerely,
Shaishav Kayastha / Yajuvendra Zala
